The Toad Suck Tuba Quartet was established in 2024 with the primary goal of both entertaining and educating audiences about the remarkable musical capabilities of the tuba and euphonium. Named after the community located just west of Conway, the ensemble consists of former members of the University of Central Arkansas's tuba/euphonium studio, who share a passion for performing a diverse range of musical styles including classical, pop, rock, jazz, and original compositions written specifically for tuba/euphonium quartets.
